FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Request for Information and Comment: Food Industry Marketing Practices to Children and Adolescents

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

ACTION: Notice requesting information and comment.

SUMMARY: The Conference Report of Public Law 109-108 instructs the FTC to submit a report to Congress by July 1, 2006 on "marketing activities and expenditures of the food industry targeted toward children and adolescents." To assist in the preparation of this report, the Commission seeks relevant information and empirical data regarding food and beverage industry marketing to children and adolescents.

DATES: Written or electronic comments must be submitted on or before Monday, April 3, 2006.

ADDRESSES: Comments should refer to "Food Marketing to Children and Adolescents Report to Congress—Comment, Project No. P064504" to facilitate the organization of comments. A comment filed in paper form should include this reference both in the text and on the envelope, and should be mailed or delivered, with two complete copies, to the following address: Federal Trade Commission/Office of the Secretary, Room H-135 (Annex H), 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20580. Because standard postal mail in the Washington area and at the Commission is subject to delay, please consider submitting your comments in electronic form, as prescribed below. Comments containing confidential material, however, must be filed in paper form, must be clearly labeled "Confidential," and must comply with Commission Rule 4.9(c).¹

Comments filed in electronic form should be submitted by clicking on the following Web link: <https://secure.commentworks.com/foodmarketing> and following the instructions on the Web-based form. To ensure that the Commission considers an electronic comment, you must file it on the Web-based form available at <https://secure.commentworks.com/foodmarketing>.

The Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 42-58 (FTC Act), and other laws the Commission administers permit the collection of public comments to consider and use as appropriate. All timely and responsive public comments, whether filed in paper or electronic form, will be considered by the Commission, and will be available to the public on the FTC Web site, to the extent practicable, at <http://www.ftc.gov>. As a matter of discretion, the FTC makes every effort to remove home contact information for individuals from the public comments it receives before placing those comments on the FTC Web site. More information, including routine uses permitted by the Privacy Act, may be found in the FTC's privacy policy, at <http://www.ftc.gov/ftc/privacy.htm>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Johnson, 202-326-3115, or Rielle Montague, 202-326-2645, FTC, Bureau of Consumer Protection. The FTC staff contacts can be reached by mail at: Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., NJ-3212, Washington, DC 20580.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 14 and 15, 2005, the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) jointly sponsored a public workshop on food and beverage marketing to children, self-regulation, and childhood obesity. The public workshop provided a forum for representatives from food and beverage companies, medical and nutrition experts, media representatives, consumer groups, advertising specialists, and other experts to discuss industry self-regulation concerning the marketing of food and beverages to children, and initiatives to educate children and parents about nutrition.
