SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The CFPB revises its Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) "CFPB.016—CFPB Advisory Boards and Committees." In revising this SORN, the CFPB modifies the purpose of the system of records to include the evaluation of potential board or committee members for eligibility to serve on an advisory board or committee to the CFPB (CFPB board or committee). In general, evaluations will consist of three parts: (1) Background checks on potential CFPB board or committee members to verify identity and identify any past or pending civil or criminal actions against such individuals; (2) an assessment of an individual's qualifications for service on a CFPB board or committee, including reviewing the applicant's education, registration in professional societies, work experience, record of performance, publications authored, membership on other boards and committees, professional awards, etc.; and (3) identifying any potential conflicts of interest that may arise from an individual's service on a CFPB board or committee through financial disclosure information, a declaration of desire and eligibility to serve, and lobbyist registration information. In revising this SORN, the CFPB also modifies the method by which records in the system may be retrieved; modifies the system owner address; removes travel records from the categories of records maintained in the system, as these records are accounted for in a government-wide system of records maintained by the General Services Administration; and adds record sources for the system. Additionally, the Bureau adds two new routine uses, which include the disclosure of personally identifiable information (PII) from the system to (1) the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) for its use in providing legal advice to the CFPB or in representing the CFPB in a legal proceeding; and (2) appropriate agencies, entities, and persons to the extent necessary to obtain information relevant to making a determination of whether an individual or entity is eligible to serve on a CFPB board or committee. Finally, this revision makes several non-substantive changes to the categories of individuals whose records are maintained in the system and to the categories of records in the system.

The report of the revised system of records has been submitted to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A-130, "Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals," dated November 30, 2000,¹ and the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(r).

The revised system of records entitled "CFPB.016—CFPB Advisory Boards and Committees" is published in its entirety below.

Dated: April 19, 2013.

Chief Privacy Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
