Bechtel Jacobs Company, LLC, Piketon, Ohio; Notice of Revised Determination on Remand

The United States Court of International Trade (USCIT) granted the Secretary of Labor's motion for a voluntary remand for further investigation in Paper, Allied-Industrial, Chemical and Energy International Union, Local 5-689 v. Elaine Chao, U.S. Secretary of Labor, No. 03-00356.

The Department's initial determination regarding Bechtel Jacobs Company, LLC (hereafter "Bechtel Jacobs") was issued on July 1, 2002 and published in the Federal Register on July 18, 2002 (67 FR 47400). The determination was based on the finding that the workers did not produce an article within the meaning of section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974. The workers provided environmental management and site restoration services.

By letter dated August 15, 2002, the petitioner requested administrative reconsideration for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA). The reconsideration determination was issued on March 18, 2003 and published in the Federal Register on April 7, 2003 (67 FR 16837). The determination was based on the findings that the workers did not produce an article within the meaning of section 222 of the Trade Act and that the workers were not service providers in direct support of a Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) certified firm.

The remand investigation revealed that Bechtel Jacobs has a contract to provide on site services with a TAA certified facility (United States Enrichment Corporation (USEC), Piketon, Ohio, TA-W-41,285). The USEC, Piketon, Ohio facility was certified for TAA on June 27, 2002.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on the current remand, I conclude that the worker group provided services at USEC, Piketon, Ohio, the worker group is co-located with a trade-certified firm, and there is a contract between the subject firm and the trade-certified firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Trade Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Bechtel Jacobs Company, LLC, Piketon, Ohio, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 14, 2001, through two years from the issuance of this revised determination, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 12th day of February, 2004.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

The Boeing Company, Commercial Aircraft Division, Puget Sound, Washington And Spokane, Washington, Portland, Oregon and Wichita, Kansas; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on February 2, 2004 in response to a worker petition filed by the Aerospace Machinists Industrial Local 751 on behalf of workers at the above locations of The Boeing Company, Commercial Aircraft Division.

The petitioning group of workers is covered by an earlier petition filed on January 29, 2004 (TA-W-54,114) that is the subject of an ongoing investigation for which a determination has not yet been issued. Further investigation in this case would duplicate efforts and serve no purpose; therefore the investigation under this petition has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 5th day of February 2004.

Boise Cascade Corporation, Yakima, Washington; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of December 3, 2003, the Western Council of Industrial Workers, Local Union 2739, requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers of the subject firm.

The negative determination was signed on October 20, 2003. The Notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on November 6, 2003 (68 FR 62833).

The petitioner asserts that the worker separations at the subject firm are the result of increased imports. The petitioner further asserts that the Department of Labor's interpretation of submitted documents was erroneous.

The Department has reviewed the request for reconsideration and has determined that the petitioner has provided additional information. Therefore, the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 10th day of February, 2004.
