SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Background

Under section 14(a) of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the Secretary of Labor is required, to the extent necessary to prevent curtailment of employment opportunities, to provide for employment under special certificates of categories of workers who may be paid less than the statutory minimum wage. This section also authorizes the Secretary to set limitations on such employment as to time, number, proportion and length of service. These workers include apprentices, messengers and learners. Form WH-209 is an Application for a Certificate to Employ Learners/Messengers at Subminimum Wages. The WH-205 is an Application to Employ Student Learners at Subminimum wages. In addition, an employer may obtain authority from the Department to employ apprentices at subminimum wages. There is no application form associated with the application for apprentices; the employer must submit a copy of the registered apprenticeship program or agreement. These requirements are found at 29 CFR part 520. This information collection is currently approved for use through July 31, 2003.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary
