Accommodation Advisory Panel, an employee's supervisor, other required STB personnel and/or the treating physician(s) or medical institution.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to the disclosures permitted under subsection (b) of the Privacy Act, the STB may disclose information contained in this system of records without the consent of the subject individual, if the disclosure is compatible with the purpose for which the records was collected under the following routine uses:

a. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to provide information to OPM and/or MSPB for review, audit, or reporting purposes;

b. A record from this system of records that indicates a violation of civil or criminal law regulation or order may be referred as a routine use to a Federal, State, or local agency that has authority to investigate, enforce, implement or prosecute such laws;

c. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to a Federal, State, or local agency, to obtain information relevant to an STB decision concerning hiring or retaining an employee, letting a contract, or issuing a security clearance, license, grant or other benefit;

d. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use, if it is relevant and necessary, in the course of discovery; in presenting evidence to a court, magistrate, administrative tribunal, or grand jury or pursuant to a qualifying order from any of those; in alternative dispute resolution proceedings, such as arbitration or mediation; or in the course of settlement negotiations;

e. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to a Congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the Congressional office made at the request of that individual;

f. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to STB experts or consultants, and those under contract with the STB on a "need-to-know" basis for a purpose within the scope of an STB task. This access will be granted to an STB contractor or employee of such contractor by a system manager only after satisfactory justification has been provided to the system manager;

g. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) STB suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the systems of records, (2) STB has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, STB (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with STB efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm; and

h. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the STB determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individual, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

Electronic records are stored on a secure server. Sensitive or confidential paper records are stored in a secured room or filing cabinet.
