Maintenance of and Access to Records Pertaining to Individuals

AGENCY: Department of Transportation (DOT), Office of the Secretary.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment includes the Transportation Security Administration as an agency subject to DOT's regulations implementing the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a.

DATES: This rule is effective August 26, 2002.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Robert I. Ross, Office of the General Counsel, C-10, Department of Transportation, Washington, DC 20590, telephone (202) 366-9156, FAX (202) 366-9170; e-mail bob.ross@ost.dot.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In response to the attacks on the United States on 9.11, the Congress established a new agency within DOT, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA), headed by the Under Secretary of Transportation for Security. The statute that did this—The Aviation and Transportation Security Act, Public Law 107-71—took effect November 19, 2001, and TSA has been part of DOT, and subject to DOT's regulations implementing the Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts since then. This amendment makes the needed technical changes to those regulations.

Notice and a prior opportunity for comment are not necessary for this rule, since it is a rule of agency organization, procedure, or practice. There is good cause to make the rule effective immediately, as it will update the Department's FOIA and Privacy Act regulations so that they clearly reflect the addition of the TSA to the Department and will not affect the substantive rights of any outside party.

Analysis of regulatory impacts. This amendment is not a "significant regulatory action" within the meaning of Executive Order 12866. It is also not significant within the definition in DOT's Regulatory Policies and Procedures, 49 FR 11034 (1979), in part because it does not involve any change in important Departmental policies. Because the economic impact should be minimal, further regulatory evaluation is not necessary. Moreover, I certify that this amendment will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

This amendment does not significantly affect the environment, and therefore an environmental impact statement is not required under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. It has also been reviewed under Executive Order 12612, Federalism, and it has been determined that it does not have sufficient implications for federalism to warrant preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

Finally, the amendment does not contain any collection of information requirements, requiring review under the Paperwork Reduction Act, as amended.
