

and each owner's interest in the account.

Current Action: The FDIC is proposing modifications, which may be considered substantive and material, to the following forms: 7200/10, Declaration for Combined Contribution Plan; 7200/12, Declaration for Defined Benefit Plan; and 7200/14, Declaration for Health and Welfare Plan. The content of the forms was revised to reflect current deposit insurance rules and regulations; to focus on the collection of information required for an insurance determination; and to incorporate applicable Code of Federal Regulations (both FDIC and non-FDIC) citations. The FDIC also proposes modifications, which may be considered non-substantive and nonmaterial, to the following forms: 7200/04, Declaration for Government Deposit; 7200/05, Declaration for Revocable Living Trust; 7200/06, Declaration of Independent Activity; 7200/07, Declaration of Independent Activity for Unincorporated Association; 7200/08, Declaration of Joint Ownership Deposit; 7200/09, Declaration of Testamentary Deposit; 7200/11, Declaration of IRA Keogh Deposit; 7200/13, Declaration of Custodian Deposit; 7200/15, Declaration for Plan and Trust; and 7200/18, Declaration for Irrevocable Trust. Finally, the FDIC proposes to add two new forms: 7200/24, Claimant Verification Form, 7200/24, and Depositor Interview Form, 7200/06. The purpose of the new forms is to facilitate collection of specific information that the FDIC will need in calculating insurance coverage after a bank failure.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether these collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimate of the burden of the information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated at Washington, DC, this 8th day of January 2013.

Formations of, Acquisitions by, and Mergers of Bank Holding Companies

The companies listed in this notice have applied to the Board for approval, pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) (BHC Act), Regulation Y (12 CFR part 225), and all other applicable statutes and regulations to become a bank holding company and/or to acquire the assets or the ownership of, control of, or the power to vote shares of a bank or bank holding company and all of the banks and nonbanking companies owned by the bank holding company, including the companies listed below.

The applications listed below, as well as other related filings required by the Board, are available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. The applications will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the standards enumerated in the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)). If the proposal also involves the acquisition of a nonbanking company, the review also includes whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company complies with the standards in section 4 of the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1843). Unless otherwise noted, nonbanking activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding each of these applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than February 7, 2014.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Granting of Request for Early Termination of the Waiting Period Under the Premerger Notification Rules

Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. 18a, as added by Title II of the

Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, requires persons contemplating certain mergers or acquisitions to give the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General advance notice and to wait designated periods before consummation of such plans. Section 7A(b)(2) of the Act permits the agencies, in individual cases, to terminate this waiting period prior to its expiration and requires that notice of this action be published in the Federal Register.

The following transactions were granted early termination—on the dates indicated—of the waiting period provided by law and the premerger notification rules. The listing for each transaction includes the transaction number and the parties to the transaction. The grants were made by the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice. Neither agency intends to take any action with respect to these proposed acquisitions during the applicable waiting period.
