DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

31 CFR Part 1

RIN 3505-AC35

Privacy Act: Implementation

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: In this final rule, the Department of the Treasury makes technical corrections to an appendix to its regulations regarding disclosure of records. These amendments update the name of the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, and also update the contact information for the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau and the procedures by which individuals may request disclosure of information under the Privacy Act. These amendments do not change the Department's interpretation of any regulation or the requirements of any recordkeeping provision.

DATES: Effective Date: October 7, 2011.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Karen Welch, Regulations and Rulings Division, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, 1310 G Street, NW., Box 12, Washington, DC 20005; telephone 202-453-1039, ext. 046 or e-mail Karen.Welch@ttb.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, pertains to the disclosure of information about individuals that is maintained by Federal government agencies. It requires Federal government agencies to make available records pertaining to an individual upon the request of that individual, and forbids Federal government agencies from disclosing records containing information about an individual without the individual's consent, subject to certain exceptions.

The regulations pertaining to the disclosure of records by the Department of the Treasury and its components are contained in 31 CFR part 1. The regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in 31 CFR part 1, subpart C, and set forth the procedures by which individuals may request notification of whether the Department of the Treasury maintains or has disclosed a record pertaining to them or may seek access to such records maintained in any nonexempt system of records. Subpart C is accompanied by appendix E, which describes the procedures applicable to each component of the Department of the Treasury. Individuals requesting records from a Treasury Department component under the Privacy Act must comply with the procedures detailed in the appropriate appendix.

Prior to January 24, 2003, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms was a component of the Department of the Treasury. Effective January 24, 2003, the Homeland Security Act of 2002 divided that Bureau into two new entities—the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) in the Department of the Treasury, and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) in the Department of Justice. TTB, the Bureau that remained within the Department of the Treasury, is responsible for administering chapters 51 (relating to distilled spirits, wine, and beer) and 52 (relating to tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes) of title 26 U.S.C., the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (IRC). TTB also administers sections 4181 and 4182 (relating to the excise tax on firearms and ammunition) of the IRC and title 27 of the U.S.C. (relating to alcohol).

As a result of the organizational change, information in appendix E to 31 CFR part 1, subpart C needs to be updated to reflect TTB's information and procedures. TTB's procedures regarding requests for disclosures under the Privacy Act should be set forth in appendix E to subpart C of 31 CFR part 1.

Therefore, the Department of the Treasury issues this document to amend the information contained in this appendix by: (1) Changing the name of the relevant agency from the "Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms" to the "Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau;" (2) changing the listed mailing address to that of TTB; and (3) updating the Privacy Act-related procedures to allow individuals to make certain requests to TTB by fax as well as by postal mail.

In accordance with Executive Order 12866, it has been determined that this final rule is not a "significant regulatory action" and, therefore, does not require a Regulatory Impact Analysis. In addition, the regulation will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, it has been determined that this final rule does not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132.

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

These regulations are being published as a direct final rule because the amendments do not impose any new requirements on any member of the public and do not substantively alter the procedures relating to the way in which the Department of the Treasury or TTB currently handles Privacy Act obligations. These amendments are the most efficient means for the Department of the Treasury to correct outdated information concerning the means by which an individual may request disclosures of information from TTB. Accordingly, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B) and (d)(3), the Department of the Treasury finds good cause that prior notice and other public comment procedures with respect to this rule are impracticable and unnecessary and finds good cause for making this rule effective upon the date of its publication in the Federal Register.
