

- Are a national of El Salvador (or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in El Salvador);
- Applied for and received an EAD under the designation of El Salvador for TPS; and
- Have not had TPS withdrawn or denied.

This automatic extension is limited to EADs issued on Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document, bearing an expiration date of March 9, 2009. These EADs must also bear the notation "A-12" or "C-19" on the face of the card under "Category."

If employment authorization is valid until September 9, 2009, why should I file for re-registration now?

DHS has granted a one time automatic extension of EADs through September 9, 2009. This allows USCIS additional time to process EAD applications for re-registrants and ensure that a gap in status does not occur. Applications for re-registration that are received by USCIS on or before December 30, 2008 may be processed prior to the EAD expiration date of March 9, 2009. However, in order to maintain TPS benefits through September 9, 2010, all TPS beneficiaries must comply with the re-registration requirements, and submit any associated application fees or applications for waivers of the fees, described in Federal Notice 73 FR 57128 (October 1, 2008), to USCIS. Those applications that are received after December 30, 2008 may take considerably longer to process. Although this Notice extends the EAD through September 9, 2009, applicants for re-registration should file their applications early to allow ample time for processing so that a gap in TPS benefits does not occur. There will not be a second automatic extension for EAD.

How may employers determine whether an EAD has been automatically extended for six months, through September 9, 2009, and is therefore acceptable for completion of the Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification?

An EAD that has been automatically extended for six months by this Notice through September 9, 2009, will bear the notation "A-12" or "C-19" on the face of the Form I-766 under "Category," and have an expiration date of March 9, 2009, on the face of the card. New EADs or extension stickers showing the September 9, 2009, expiration date of the six-month automatic extension will not be issued. Employers should not request proof of Salvadoran citizenship.

Employers should accept an EAD as a valid "List A" document and not ask for additional Form I-9 documentation if presented with an EAD that has been extended pursuant to this Federal Register Notice, and the EAD reasonably appears on its face to be genuine and to relate to the employee. This extension does not affect the right of an applicant for employment or an employee to present any legally acceptable document as proof of identity and eligibility for employment.

Note to Employers: Employers are reminded that the laws requiring employment eligibility verification and prohibiting unfair immigration-related employment practices remain in full force. This Notice does not supersede or in any way limit applicable employment verification rules and policy guidance, including those setting forth re-verification requirements. For questions, employers may call the USCIS Customer Assistance Office at 1-800-357-2099. Employers may also call the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices (OSC) Employer Hotline at 1-800-255-8155. Employees or applicants may call the OSC Employee Hotline at 1-800-255-7688 for information regarding the automatic extension. Additional information is available on the OSC Web site at <http://www.usdoj.gov/crt/osc/index.html>.

How may employers determine an employee's eligibility for employment once the automatic six-month extension expires on September 9, 2009?

Eligible TPS aliens will possess an EAD on Form I-766 with an expiration date of September 9, 2010. The EAD will bear the notation "A-12" or "C-19" on the face of the card under "Category," and should be accepted for the purposes of verifying identity and employment authorization.

What documents may a qualified individual show to his or her employer as proof of employment authorization and identity when completing Form I-9?

Qualified individuals who have received a six-month automatic extension of their EADs by virtue of this Federal Register Notice may present their TPS-based EAD to their employers, as described above, as proof of identity and employment authorization through September 9, 2009. To minimize confusion over this extension at the time of hire or re-verification, qualified individuals may also present a copy of this Federal Register Notice regarding the automatic extension of employment authorization documentation through September 9, 2009. After September 9, 2009, a qualified individual may present a new EAD valid through September 9, 2010.

In the alternative, any legally acceptable document or combination of documents as listed on the Form I-9 may be presented as proof of identity and employment eligibility.

Dated: December 9, 2008.

Acting Deputy Director, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Title of Proposal: Disaster Housing Assistance Program (DHAP) Incremental Rent Transition Study.

Description of Information Collection: This document provides notice that this emergency request is necessary at this time because it is an essential part of an important study of the incremental rent transition (IRT) aspect of DHAP. This study will compare families transitioning from stepped-up rents (i.e., Phase I families) and $0 rent (i.e., Phase II/Phase III families) to market rate or assisted housing and measure their outcomes over time. This Information Collection would enable the Department to answer the question of how do you transition people most effectively from rental assistance to market rate housing after a disaster. Additionally, since DHAP differs from the regular Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program, this study will enable HUD to see if DHAP vouchers and their differential rents are having a different effect on housing, employment, education, health, and other outcomes after DHAP ends February 28, 2009.

OMB Control Number: 2528–Pending.

Agency Form Numbers: None.

Members of Affected Public: State, Local or Tribal Government.
