SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Rail network reliability is essential to the Nation's economy and is a foremost priority of the Board. As discussed in prior decisions in Docket No. EP 770 and Docket No. EP 770 (Sub-No. 1), the Board has heard from a broad range of stakeholders about the significant challenges they have experienced because of inconsistent and unreliable rail service from BNSF Railway

Company; CSX Transportation, Inc.; Norfolk Southern Railway Company; and UP, including substantial increases in problems arising from tight car supply and unfilled car orders, delays in transportation for carload and bulk traffic, increased origin dwell time for released unit trains, missed switches, and ineffective customer assistance. The Board has received reports, from the Secretary of Transportation, the Secretary of Agriculture, members of the U.S. Congress, and other stakeholders, about the serious impact of these service trends on rail users, particularly shippers of agricultural and energy products.¹

As a Class I rail carrier, UP occupies a major and essential role in the movement of goods across the country. It carries approximately 26.8% of freight served by rail² and approximately 10.7% of all long-distance freight volume.³ Therefore, disruptions in UP's service levels have a significant detrimental impact on the supply chain and the economy of the United States. As such, the Board has been closely monitoring UP's recent use of embargoes⁴ and has observed a disturbing upward trend in their usage. In recent years, there has been a significant increase in UP's use of embargoes, and congestion is the stated cause for almost of all of the embargoes, as shown in the below chart.⁵

Year	Number of embargoes	Percentage caused by congestion	Percentage caused by weather	Percentage caused by catastrophic event	Percentage caused by other
2017	27	19	70	11	22
2018	140	99		1
2019	413	74	21		5

² This figure is derived from the Class I railroads' Annual Report of Operations and Finances, known as R-1 reports, submitted to the Board.

³ This figure is derived from the Association of American Railroads (AAR) at www.aar.org/facts-figures.

⁵ This information was obtained from the AAR Embargo System at <https://embargo.railinc.com/#/home>.

This pattern shows no signs of abating. Between November 1, 2022, and November 17, 2022, UP issued an additional 126 embargoes with congestion as the stated cause. Of those 126 embargoes, 89 were issued on November 16, 2022; as of November 17, 2022, UP had 128 active embargoes in place and, for all, congestion was the stated cause. The Board understands that embargoes may vary in scope and that all carriers do not report and use embargoes in the same way. Nevertheless, the use of embargoes by all other Class I carriers, combined, pales in comparison to the number of embargoes issued by UP. Given UP's sizeable role in freight rail, its increased use of embargoes in recent years, and the considerable increase just this month, it is imperative that the Board hear from UP directly about this matter and how UP plans to reduce, if not eliminate, the use of embargoes to control congestion.

The Board will hold a public hearing on December 13 and 14, 2022, beginning at 9:30 a.m. ET, at its offices in Washington, DC, to hear firsthand from senior officials of UP about the substantial increase in the use of embargoes in recent years. The Board will direct the following executive-level officials of UP to appear at the hearing: Lance M. Fritz, Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer; Kenny Rocker, Executive Vice President—Marketing and Sales; Eric Gehringer, Executive Vice President—Operations; and Bradley Moore, Vice President—Customer Care and Support. UP is directed to ensure that its representatives can provide the Board with detailed information pertaining to UP's embargoes. Accordingly, in addition to those directed, UP may bring additional personnel to the hearing that may be able to provide helpful information to the Board. If UP intends to have any other persons appear, UP should notify the Board by December 5, 2022.

At the hearing, UP should be prepared to discuss in detail the following topics:

- UP's decision-making process in determining to issue an embargo, including underlying causes (e.g., network issues and crew shortages), whether UP's market power plays a role in the decision making, and UP's consideration of alternatives to embargoes;

- How UP measures congestion and total excess cars throughout its system;

- The explanations for the dramatic increase in embargoes since 2017, including whether UP has maintained sufficient resources during that time period;

- UP's practices and policies with respect to notification and outreach to shippers;

- UP's consideration of shippers' operational needs, including alternative avenues to meet their shipping requirements;

- UP's implementation and use of the CIMS;

- Whether UP has considered the impact of its embargoes on its common carrier and other legal obligations, and if so, the specifics of that consideration; and

- UP's plans, if any, to decrease the need for embargoes going forward.

Additionally, in advance of the hearing, UP is directed to file with the Board information and documents in support of the above topics so that the Board may understand UP's processes for deciding when and how to use embargoes. Furthermore, UP is directed to file with the Board information and documents so that the Board may understand how UP is using and intends to use the CIMS as a tool to reset inventory levels in the short-term and for continual maintenance in the long-term.

UP is also directed to preserve all paper and electronic records, including all correspondence, related to its embargoes and the CIMS.

In addition to directing UP's participation at the hearing, the Board will invite shippers and other stakeholders who can contribute to the Board's understanding of the cause and/or impact of UP's embargoes and the CIMS to testify.⁶

Board Releases and Transcript Availability: Decisions and notices of the Board, including this notice, are available on the Board's website at www.stb.gov.
