

Technologies LLC, Sanborn, New York; Syrah Technologies LLC (“Syrah”), Vidalia, Louisiana; NOVONIX Anode Materials LLC, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Epsilon Advanced Materials Pty. Ltd., Leland, North Carolina; and SKI US, Inc., Marietta, Georgia, filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of active anode material from China and LTFV imports of active anode material from China. Accordingly, effective December 18, 2024, the Commission instituted countervailing duty investigation No. 701-TA-752 and antidumping duty investigation No. 731-TA-1730 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission’s investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of December 26, 2024 (89 FR 105100). The Commission conducted its conference on January 8, 2025. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to sections 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on February 3, 2025. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5585 (February 2025), entitled Active Anode Material from China: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-752 and 731-TA-1730 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 3, 2025.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337-TA-1379]

Certain Video Capable Electronic Devices, Including Computers, Streaming Devices, Televisions, Cameras, and Components and Modules Thereof; Notice of Request for Submissions on the Public Interest

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that on January 29, 2025, the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) issued an Initial Determination on Violation of Section 337. The ALJ also issued a Recommended Determination on remedy and bonding should a violation be found in the above-captioned investigation. The Commission is soliciting submissions on public interest issues raised by the recommended relief should the Commission find a violation. This notice is soliciting comments from the public and interested government agencies only.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Joelle P. Justus, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205-2593. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation may be viewed on the Commission’s electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. For help accessing EDIS, please email EDIS3Help@usitc.gov. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server at <https://www.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission’s TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 provides that, if the Commission finds a violation, it shall exclude the articles concerned from the United States unless, after considering the effect of such exclusion upon the public health and welfare, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, and United States consumers, it finds that such articles should not be excluded from entry. (19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(1)). A similar provision applies to cease and desist orders. (19 U.S.C. 1337(f)(1)).

The Commission is soliciting submissions on public interest issues raised by the recommended relief should the Commission find a violation, specifically: a limited exclusion order directed to certain video capable electronic devices, including computers, streaming devices, televisions, cameras, and components and modules thereof imported, sold for importation, and/or sold after importation by respondents Amazon.com, Inc. and Amazon.com Services, LLC (collectively, “Amazon”); and cease and desist orders directed to Amazon. Parties are to file public interest submissions pursuant to 19 CFR 210.50(a)(4).

The Commission is interested in further development of the record on the public interest in this investigation. Accordingly, members of the public and interested government agencies are invited to file submissions of no more than five (5) pages, inclusive of attachments, concerning the public interest in light of the ALJ’s Recommended Determination on Remedy and Bonding issued in this investigation on January 29, 2025. Comments should address whether issuance of the recommended remedial orders in this investigation, should the Commission find a violation, would affect the public health and welfare in the United States, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

- (i) explain how the articles potentially subject to the recommended remedial orders are used in the United States;
- (ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the recommended orders;
- (iii) identify like or directly competitive articles that complainant, its licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;
- (iv) indicate whether complainant, complainant’s licensees, and/or third-party suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the recommended orders within a commercially reasonable time; and
- (v) explain how the recommended orders would impact consumers in the United States.

Written submissions must be filed no later than by close of business on March 5, 2025.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above pursuant to 19 CFR 210.4(f). Submissions should refer to the investigation number (“Inv. No. 337-TA-1379”) in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page. (See Handbook for Electronic Filing Procedures, https://www.usitc.gov/secretary/fed_reg_notices/rules/handbook_on_electronic_filing.pdf). Persons with questions regarding filing should contact the Secretary (202-205-2000).

Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment by marking each document with a header indicating that the document contains confidential information. This marking will be deemed to satisfy the request procedure set forth in Rules 201.6(b) and 210.5(e)(2) (19 CFR 201.6(b) & 210.5(e)(2)). Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is properly sought will be treated accordingly. Any non-party wishing to submit comments containing confidential information must serve those comments on the parties to the investigation pursuant to the applicable Administrative Protective Order. A redacted non-confidential version of the document must also be filed simultaneously with any confidential filing and must be served in accordance with Commission Rule 210.4(f)(7)(ii)(A) (19 CFR 210.4(f)(7)(ii)(A)). All information, including confidential business information and documents for which confidential treatment is properly sought, submitted to the Commission for purposes of this investigation may be disclosed to and used: (i) by the Commission, its employees and Offices, and contract personnel (a) for developing or maintaining the records of this or a related proceeding, or (b) in internal investigations, audits, reviews, and evaluations relating to the programs, personnel, and operations of the Commission including under 5 U.S.C. Appendix 3; or (ii) by U.S. government employees and contract personnel, solely for cybersecurity purposes. All contract personnel will sign appropriate nondisclosure agreements. All nonconfidential written submissions will be available for public inspection on EDIS.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 3, 2025.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337-TA-1362 (Remand)]

Certain Liquid Transfer Devices With an Integral Vial Adapter; Notice of a Commission Determination Finding a Violation of Section 337; Issuance of a Limited Exclusion Order and a Cease and Desist Order; Termination of the Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to affirm the determination finding a violation of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, in the remand initial determination ("Remand ID") issued by the Chief Administrative Law Judge ("CALJ") and to take no position with respect to a portion of the Remand ID. The Commission has also determined to issue a limited exclusion order prohibiting further importation of infringing products by the three remaining respondents and a cease and desist order against one respondent.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Edward S. Jou, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205-3316. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. For help accessing EDIS, please email EDIS3Help@usitc.gov. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server at <https://www.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 11, 2023, based on a complaint, as supplemented, (the "Complaint") filed by West Pharmaceutical Services, Inc. and West Pharma. Services IL, Ltd. (collectively, "West" or "Complainants"). 88 FR 30342 (May 11, 2023). The Complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, based on the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain liquid transfer devices with an integral vial adapter by reason of the infringement of claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 10,688,295 (the "'295 patent"); the claim of U.S. Design Patent No. D767,124 ("the D'124 patent"); the claim of U.S. Design Patent No. D765,837 ("the D'837 patent"); the claim of U.S. Design Patent No. D630,732 ("the D'732 patent"); and U.S. Trademark Registration No. 5,810,583 ("the '583 mark"). Id. at 30342.

The Commission's notice of investigation named four respondents: Advcare Medical, Inc. ("Advcare") of New Taipei City, Taiwan, Dragon Heart Medical Devices Co., Ltd. ("Dragon Heart Devices") of Kaiping City, China, Dragon Heart Medical, Inc. ("Dragon Heart") of Addison, Illinois, and Summit International Medical Technologies, Inc. ("Summit") of Franklin, Massachusetts. Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations ("OUII") is also a party to this investigation. Id.

The investigation was terminated as to Dragon Heart Devices by withdrawal of the Complaint. Order No. 9 (Aug. 24, 2023), unreviewed by Comm'n Notice (Sept. 20, 2023).

The '583 mark and the three asserted design patents (the D'124 patent, the D'837 patent, and the D'732 patent) were terminated from the investigation by withdrawal of the Complaint. Order No. 12 (Sept. 19, 2023), unreviewed by Comm'n Notice (Oct. 19, 2023); Order No. 14 (Oct. 4, 2023), unreviewed by Comm'n Notice (Nov. 2, 2023). Accordingly, the '295 patent is the only remaining asserted intellectual property in this investigation, and the respondents remaining in the investigation are Summit, Advcare, and Dragon Heart (collectively, "Respondents").

On October 16, 2023, West filed an unopposed motion for summary determination that it satisfied the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement, which was granted. Order No. 17 (Nov. 28, 2023), unreviewed by Comm'n Notice (Dec. 28, 2023).

A claim construction hearing was held on October 26, 2023, and the CALJ issued a claim construction order on November 13, 2023. Order No. 15 (Nov. 13, 2023). The parties filed motions in limine, and the CALJ precluded certain evidence and arguments in Order No. 19 (Dec. 1, 2023). In particular, the CALJ granted West's motion in limine no. 2, precluding Respondents and OUII from challenging the validity of the '295 patent. Id. at 2-6.

An evidentiary hearing was held on December 4-5, 2023, and the CALJ issued a final initial determination ("Final ID") on March 15, 2024, finding a violation of section 337 based on
