Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc.,
Oncology Care Systems Division,
Concord, CA

TA-W-73,158A

Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc.,
Global Services/Supply Chain
Management, Malvern, PA

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor (Department) issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 11, 2010, applicable to workers and former workers of Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. (Siemens), Oncology Care Systems Division, Concord, California (subject firm). The workers are engaged in employment related to the supply of administrative services. The Department's Notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on April 23, 2010 (75 FR 21355).

At the request of workers, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm.

New information provided by Siemens reveals that workers of Global Services/Supply Chain Management, Malvern, Pennsylvania, provided support to several Siemens facilities, including but not limited to, the Concord, California facility (TA-W-73,158). Global Services/Supply Chain Management, Malvern, Pennsylvania supplies information technology services (such as help desk, application development and support, and data center operations) in support of Siemens.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of the Global Services/Supply Chain Management, Malvern, Pennsylvania facility of Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc. (TA-W-73,158A). The worker group at the Malvern, Pennsylvania facility does not include on-site leased workers from temporary agencies.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by a shift in services to Germany.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-73,158 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc., Oncology Care Systems Division, Concord, California (TA-W-73,158) and Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Inc., Global Services/Supply Chain Management, Malvern, Pennsylvania (TA-W-73,158A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 22, 2008, through March 11, 2012, and all workers in the groups threatened with total or partial separation from employment on March 11, 2010 through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC this 29th day of July, 2011.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by (TA-W) number issued during the period of July 18, 2011 through July 22, 2011.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. The sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. Increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. There has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. There has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made for secondarily affected workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(b) of the Act must be met.
