

came to John James Audubon State Park in 1938. The Commonwealth of Kentucky purchased the shirt from Audubon's descendants in 1994. The shirt is Blackfeet as it bears the Blackfeet symbol on both the obverse and reverse of the shirt in addition to Audubon's documentation of receiving the shirt in his journal. No hazardous materials were used to treat the shirt that are known.

Determinations

The John James Audubon State Park has determined that:

- The one object of cultural patrimony described in this notice has ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Blackfeet Tribe of the Blackfeet Indian Reservation of Montana based on the tribe's Native American traditional knowledge. There is a strong connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Blackfeet Tribe of the Blackfeet Indian Reservation of Montana.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural item in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural item in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after April 18, 2025. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the John James Audubon State Park must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural item are considered a single request and not competing requests. The John James Audubon State Park is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and to any other consulting parties.

Notice of Inventory Completion: Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College has completed an inventory of human remains and associated funerary objects and has determined that there is a cultural affiliation between the human remains and associated funerary objects and Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects in this notice may occur on or after April 18, 2025.

ADDRESSES: Jami C. Powell, Associate Director of Curatorial Affairs & Curator of Indigenous Art, Hood Museum of Art, 6 East Wheelock Street, Hanover, NH 03755, telephone (603) 646-2822, email hood.NAGPRA@dartmouth.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in its inventory or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

Human remains representing, at least, one individual have been identified. The one associated funerary object is one lot of semi-melted beads. This ancestor was removed by anthropologist Robert A. McKennan in 1929-30 during field research studying the Tanana and Chandalar people of the Upper Tanana River, Alaska, and was subsequently donated to the Dartmouth College Museum. The ancestor was removed "near the mouth of the Nabesna River" in Southeast Fairbanks County in Alaska. According to McKennan, the ancestor was said to be of "Upper Yukon men" and had likely died prior to 1870, when cremation ceased in the area.

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location or acquisition history of the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry.
- The one object described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- There is a connection between the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice and Northway Village.

Requests for Repatriation

Written requests for repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by:

1. Any one or more of the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.
2. Any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization with cultural affiliation.

Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after April 18, 2025. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects are considered a single request and not competing requests. The Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.

Notice of Intended Repatriation: Culver-Stockton College, Canton, MO

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the Culver-Stockton College intends to repatriate certain cultural items that meet the definition of sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony and that have a cultural affiliation with the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice may occur on or after April 18, 2025.

ADDRESSES: C. Patrick Hotle, Culver-Stockton College, NO 1 College Hill, Canton, MO 63435, telephone (217) 592–2300, email photle@culver.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of Culver-Stockton College and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

A total of six cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The six sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony are four pipes, a ceremonial axe and a boatstone. No. 782, Box E is a steatite boatstone engraved and drilled measuring 4" by 5/8" from Union County, GA. No. 740, Box E is a white marble ceremonial axe measuring 14 1/4" by 6" from Bartow County, GA. No. 785, Box E is a steatite bear effigy pipe measuring 1 1/2" by 1 1/4" from Lumpkin County, GA. No. 1107, Box E is a steatite human effigy pipe measuring 7 1/4" by 1/2" from Bartow County, GA. No. 1113, Box G is a steatite fish effigy pipe measuring 12" by 3 1/2" from Gibson County, Tennessee.

No. 755, Box H is a sandstone bird effigy pipe measuring 11 1/2" by 3 1/4" from an unknown location in Tennessee. All of these objects came to the college through the Paul Cory collection given in 1975. Nothing is known about these objects but what is written on the objects themselves. There has been no potentially hazardous substances used to treat these objects.

Determinations

The Culver-Stockton College has determined that:

- The six sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony described in this notice are, according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization, specific ceremonial objects needed by a traditional Native American religious leader for present-day adherents to practice traditional Native American religion, and have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision).

- There is a reasonable connection between the cultural items described in this notice and The Muscogee (Creek) Nation.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after April 18, 2025. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the Culver-Stockton College must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The Culver-Stockton College is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and to any other consulting parties.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701–TA–704–705 and
731–TA–1664–1666 (Final)]

Paper Plates From China, Thailand, and Vietnam

Determinations

On the basis of the record ¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission ("Commission") determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of paper plates from China, Thailand, and Vietnam, provided for in subheading 4823.69.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that have been found by the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") to be sold in the United States at less than fair value ("LTFV"), and that have been found to be subsidized by the governments of China and Vietnam.^{2 3}

Background

The Commission instituted these investigations effective January 25, 2024, following receipt of petitions filed with the Commission and Commerce by the American Paper Plate Coalition, which is comprised of AJM Packaging Corporation, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, Aspen Products, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri, Dart Container Corporation, Mason, Michigan, Hoffmaster Group, Inc., Oshkosh, Wisconsin, Huhtamaki Americas, Inc., De Soto, Kansas, and Unique Industries, Inc., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The final phase of the investigations was scheduled by the Commission following notification of preliminary ¹ The record is defined in § 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² 90 FR 8271; 90 FR 8262; 90 FR 8265; 90 FR 8281; 90 FR 8258 (January 28, 2025).

³ The Commission also finds that imports subject to Commerce's affirmative critical circumstances determinations are likely to undermine seriously the remedial effect of the countervailing and antidumping duty orders on paper plates from China (Commissioner David S. Johanson dissenting), and are not likely to undermine seriously the remedial effect of the antidumping duty order on paper plates from Thailand or the countervailing and antidumping duty orders on paper plates from Vietnam (Commissioner Jason E. Kearns dissenting on Vietnam).
