Abstract of Information Available

A total of five cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The five unassociated funerary objects are two gorgets, one ax, one set of shell beads, and one birdstone.

The cannel coal gorget was obtained by Dr. Gordon Meuser on an unknown date from a "gravel kame burial" at an unknown location in Lucas County, OH. It is unclear if he was the collector or received it from someone else. On a date likely between 1942 and 1974, the gorget was purchased by Mrs. Carol Heckendorn, who then donated it to Ohio History Connection in 1974.

The ax, one gorget, and shell beads were excavated at Turkey Foot Rock in Lucas County, Ohio in the fall of 1933 by Richard Larimer. The materials were donated to the Ohio History Connection in 1933 by Richard Larimer.

The birdstone was collected from an unknown location in Lucas County, OH by W.K. Moorehead prior to 1897. The material was then donated to the Ohio History Connection in 1897.
