

human remains were removed from unknown locations in Central Virginia.

This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA, 25 U.S.C. 3003(d)(3). The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the Superintendent, Colonial National Historical Park.

Consultation

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by Colonial National Historical Park professional staff in consultation with representatives of the Monacan Indian Nation.

History and Description of the Remains

At unknown dates, human remains representing, at minimum, three individuals were removed from unknown sites in Central Virginia by Colonel Wirt Robinson. In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Colonel Robinson collected human remains and artifacts from multiple Virginia counties, including Amherst, Appomattox, Buckingham, Campbell, and Nelson. In 1940, the collection was purchased from Colonel Robinson's widow by the National Park Service and placed with Colonial National Historical Park's Jamestown museum collection. During the study, evaluation, and cataloging of the collection by the University of Virginia, several human remains were discovered. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

In 2000, the Wirt Robinson Collection was loaned to the Monacan Indian Nation and analyzed by Dr. Jeffrey Hantman of the University of Virginia. Dr. Hantman, an authority on Monacan history and material culture, wrote that "There can be no more appropriate place for this collection than with the Monacan Indian Nation." In 2002, osteologist Debra Gold of St. Cloud State University concluded that the 14 human bones and one human tooth represented two adults and one juvenile. In 2008, the artifacts, none of which were determined to be associated funerary objects, were deaccessioned and transferred to the Monacan Indian Nation.

All of the Virginia counties from which the human remains and artifacts were removed have been identified as Monacan ancestral territory.

Determinations Made by the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Colonial National Historical Park

Officials of the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Colonial

National Historical Park have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of three individuals of Native American ancestry.

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the Native American human remains and the Monacan Indian Nation.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Jerri Marr, Superintendent, Colonial National Historical Park, P.O. Box 210, Yorktown, VA 23690, telephone (757) 898-2400, email jerri_marr@nps.gov, by December 7, 2022. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains to the Monacan Indian Nation may proceed.

The U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Colonial National Historical Park is responsible for notifying the Monacan Indian Nation that this notice has been published.

Notice of Intent To Repatriate Cultural Items: University of Denver Museum of Anthropology, Denver, CO

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The University of Denver Museum of Anthropology, in consultation with the appropriate Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations, has determined that the cultural items listed in this notice meet the definition of unassociated funerary objects. Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to claim these cultural items should submit a written request to the University of Denver Museum of Anthropology. If no additional claimants come forward, transfer of control of the cultural items to the lineal descendants, Indian Tribes, or Native Hawaiian organizations stated in this notice may proceed.

DATES: Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not
claim these cultural items should submit a written request with information in support of the claim to the University of Denver Museum of Anthropology at the address in this notice by December 7, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Anne Amati, University of Denver
Museum of Anthropology, 2000 E Asbury Avenue, Denver, CO 80208, telephone (303) 871–2687, email
anne.amati@du.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Notice is here given in accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 25 U.S.C.
3005, of the intent to repatriate cultural items under the control of the University of Denver Museum of Anthropology, Denver, CO, that meet
the definition of unassociated funerary objects under 25 U.S.C. 3001.

This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA, 25 U.S.C. 3003(d)(3). The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the museum, institution, or Federal agency that has control of the Native American cultural items. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

History and Description of the Cultural Items

At an unknown date, two cultural items were removed from an unknown site in Alabama. At an unknown date, the cultural items came into the possession of Fallis F. Rees. In 1968, Mr.
Rees donated his collection, including these items, to the University of Denver.
The two unassociated funerary objects are two jars (DU #s 4139 and 4140).

Geographical and historical evidence support a cultural affiliation of these objects with the Indian Tribes that have a legacy of occupation in the state of Alabama. Based on information provided by The Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma during consultation, these objects are unassociated funerary objects.

Determinations Made by the University of Denver Museum of Anthropology

Officials of the University of Denver Museum of Anthropology have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(3)(B),
the two cultural items described above are reasonably believed to have been placed with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony and are believed, by a preponderance of the evidence, to have been removed from a specific burial site of a Native American individual.

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the unassociated funerary objects and the Cherokee Nation; Coushatta Tribe of Louisiana; Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians; Eastern Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma; Seminole Tribe of Florida (previously listed as Seminole Tribe of Florida (Dania, Big Cypress, Brighton, Hollywood, & Tampa Reservations)); Shawnee Tribe; The Chickasaw Nation; The Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma; The Muscogee (Creek) Nation; and the Thlopthlocco Tribal Town (hereafter referred to as “The Tribes”).

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to claim these cultural items should submit a written request with
