

Written submissions.—Each party who is an interested party shall submit a prehearing brief to the Commission. Prehearing briefs must conform with the provisions of § 207.23 of the Commission's rules; the deadline for filing is November 10, 2022. Parties shall also file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the hearing, and posthearing briefs, which must conform with the provisions of section 207.25 of the Commission's rules. The deadline for filing posthearing briefs is November 28, 2022. In addition, any person who has not entered an appearance as a party to the investigations may submit a written statement of information pertinent to the subject of the investigations, including statements of support or opposition to the petitions, on or before November 28, 2022. On December 13, 2022, the Commission will make available to parties all information on which they have not had an opportunity to comment. Parties may submit final comments on this information on or before December 15, 2022, but such final comments must not contain new factual information and must otherwise comply with § 207.30 of the Commission's rules. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of § 201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain BPI must also conform with the requirements of §§ 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's Handbook on Filing Procedures, available on the Commission's website at https://www.usitc.gov/documents/handbook_on_filing_procedures.pdf, elaborates upon the Commission's procedures with respect to filings.

Additional written submissions to the Commission, including requests pursuant to § 201.12 of the Commission's rules, shall not be accepted unless good cause is shown for accepting such submissions, or unless the submission is pursuant to a specific request by a Commissioner or Commission staff.

In accordance with §§ 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the Commission's rules, each document filed by a party to the investigations must be served on all other parties to the investigations (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: These investigations are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to § 207.21 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: September 15, 2022.

Katherine Hiner,

Acting Secretary to the Commission.

National Institute of Justice Listening Sessions With Stakeholder Organizations

AGENCY: National Institute of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) plans to host a series of listening sessions with stakeholder organizations. The purpose of the listening sessions is for the NIJ Director to (1) to gather fact and information from stakeholder organizations about current challenges in the criminal justice and juvenile justice ecosystems that research could address and (2) to explain NIJ's priorities in regard to those challenges. NIJ's priorities are described at: <https://nij.ojp.gov/about/nij-director>. Stakeholder organizations include law enforcement, corrections, courts, criminal justice, and public safety professional associations; current NIJ grant and cooperative agreement recipients; law enforcement, corrections, courts, and other criminal justice agencies; juvenile justice agencies; crime victims agencies; advocacy groups, including community-based entities that are dedicated to evidence-based public safety initiatives; and other organizations with a nexus to criminal justice and juvenile justice operations and research.

DATES: In-person listening sessions will be held on the following dates and time: October 12, 2022 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; October 20, 2022 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.; and November 7, 2022 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. All times in Eastern time.

ADDRESSES: In-person listening sessions will be held at the Office of Justice Programs, 810 7th Street NW, Washington, DC 20531. Virtual listening sessions will be held via Webex.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Barry Bratburd, National Institute of Justice, 810 7th Street NW, Washington, DC 20531; telephone number: (202) 616–5314; email address: barry.bratburd2@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: NIJ is conducting this activity pursuant to its authorities at 34 U.S.C. 10122 and 6 U.S.C. 161–165.

NIJ anticipates holding several listening sessions in-person on the dates listed below. Space will be limited for each in-person listening session, and as a result, only 25 participants will be allowed to register for each. NIJ requests that each organization limit their representatives to only one per organization and attend only one listening session. Exceptions to this limit may occur, should space allow. Participants planning to attend are responsible for their own travel arrangements.

To express interest in attending a listening session, please send an email to the point of contact listed below by 5:00 p.m. Eastern time one week prior to the scheduled meeting and provide the name of your organization and the name of the representatives proposed to attend. A preliminary agenda will be sent via email to confirmed attendees prior to the listening session. Depending on the level of interest, NIJ may convene additional listening sessions to be held virtually or in person. The web address for any virtual listening sessions will be sent via email to confirmed attendees prior to those listening sessions.

Nancy La Vigne,

Director, National Institute of Justice.
