

771(9)(C) of the Act as manufacturers in the United States of the domestic like product.⁴

On December 1, 2021, the domestic interested parties filed timely and adequate substantive responses, within the deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3)(i).⁵ Commerce did not receive adequate substantive responses from any respondent interested party, nor was a hearing requested.⁶ As a result, pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), we determine that the respondent interested parties did not provide an adequate response to the notice of initiation and, therefore, Commerce conducted expedited (120-day) sunset reviews of the Orders.

Scope of the Orders

The merchandise covered by the Orders is CWP from Oman, Pakistan, and the UAE. For a complete description of the scope of the Orders, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.⁷

Analysis of Comments Received

A complete discussion of all issues raised in these sunset reviews is provided in the Issues and Decision Memorandum. A list of the topics discussed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum is attached as an appendix to this notice. The Issues and Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). ACCESS is available to registered users at <https://access.trade.gov>. In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly at <https://access.trade.gov/public/FRNoticesListLayout.aspx>.

Final Results of Sunset Reviews

Pursuant to sections 751(c) and 752(c)(1) and (3) of the Act, Commerce determines that revocation of the Orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping, and that the magnitude of the dumping margins likely to prevail would be weighted-average margins of up to:

Country	Weighted average dumping margin (percent)
Oman	7.36
Pakistan	11.80
UAE	6.43

Notification Regarding Administrative Protective Orders

This notice also serves as the only reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the return or destruction of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305. Timely notification of the return or destruction of APO materials, or conversion to judicial protective orders, is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction.

Notification to Interested Parties

We are issuing and publishing these final results and notice in accordance with sections 751(c), 752(c), and 777(i)(1) of the Act, and 19 CFR 351.218 and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(5)(ii).

Dated: February 11, 2022.

Lisa W. Wang,

Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Amendments to Revise Trade Mission Dates, and Deadline for Submitting Applications.

Background

Trade Mission to Central America in Conjunction With The Trade Americas—Business Opportunities in Central America Conference

Due to the recent Omicron variant wave in the region, the International Trade Administration has determined that to allow for optimal execution of recruitment and event scheduling for the mission, the dates of the mission are modified from March 27–April 1, 2022 to August 21–26, 2022. As a result of the shift of the event dates the date of the application deadline is also revised from January 28, 2022 to May 27, 2022 (and after that date if space remains and scheduling constraints permit). Interested U.S. companies and trade associations/organizations that have not already applied are encouraged to do so. The U.S. Department of Commerce will review applications and make selection decisions on a rolling basis in accordance with the original Notice published at 87 FR 2130 (January 13, 2022). The applicants selected will be notified as soon as possible. The proposed schedule is updated as follows: *

Proposed Timetable
