

collection of information on contractors performing private security functions outside the US will require rulemaking.

Comment on the Burden Estimate: A respondent stated that “the estimate of 70 burden hours annually appears low given the complexity and seriousness of the required reporting on weapons discharge incidents, personnel injuries, and military vehicle registration.” The respondent recommended reassessing the burden estimate “using recent case studies of contractor reporting complexity in areas like Iraq and Afghanistan.”

Response: The information collection burden estimate covers only contractors of non-DoD agencies. The information is collected from DoD contractors under OMB Control Number 0704–0460, Synchronized Predeployment and Operational Tracker Enterprise Suite (SPOT–ES) System.

Comments on expanding reporting requirements: Two respondents provided many recommendations to improve accuracy, timeliness, oversight, accountability, and the transparency of the collected information. Key recommendations include clarifying the definitions of “significant military operations,” “security incidents,” and “use of force”; requiring readiness certifications for medical evacuation resources; increasing transparency through public incident reports; implementing post-contract reviews; incorporating third-party incident reporting and independent audits; mandating human rights and environmental impact reporting; collecting data on contractor workforce protections, gender, and diversity; and encouraging broader adoption of automated, secure digital reporting platforms.

Response: The respondents’ input is appreciated. Any changes to the collection of information on contractors performing private security functions outside the US will require rulemaking.

B. Need and Uses

This clearance covers the information that contractors must submit to comply with the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) part 43 requirements as stated in the following clauses:

FAR 52.243–1, Changes—Fixed-Price, 52.243–2 Changes—Cost-Reimbursement, and 52.243–3 Changes—Time-and-Materials or Labor-

Hours. Contractors are required to assert their right to an adjustment under these clauses within 30 days after receipt of a written change order from the contracting officer.

FAR 52.243–4, Changes. For acquisitions for dismantling, demolition, or removal of improvements; and fixed-price construction contracts that exceed the simplified acquisition threshold, the contractor must assert its right to an adjustment under this clause within 30 days after receipt of a written change order or the furnishing of a written notice, by submitting to the contracting officer a written statement describing the general nature and amount of proposal, unless this period is extended by the Government. The written notice covers any other written or oral order (which includes direction, instruction, interpretation, or determination) from the contracting officer that causes a change. The contractor gives the contracting officer written notice stating (1) the date, circumstances, and source of the order and (2) that the contractor regards the order as a change order. The statement of proposal for adjustment may be included in the written notice.

FAR 52.243–6, Change Order Accounting. The contracting officer may require change order accounting whenever the estimated cost of a change or series of related changes exceeds $100,000. The contractor, for each change or series of related changes, shall maintain separate accounts, by job order or other suitable accounting procedure, of all incurred segregable, direct costs (less allocable credits) of work, both changed and not changed, allocable to the change. The contractor shall maintain these accounts until the parties agree to an equitable adjustment or the matter is conclusively disposed of under the Disputes clause. This requirement is necessary in order to be able to account properly for costs associated with changes in supply and research and development (R&D) contracts of significant technical complexity, if numerous changes are anticipated, or construction contracts if deemed appropriate by the contracting officer.

FAR 52.243–7, Notification of Changes. The clause is available for use primarily in negotiated R&D or supply contracts for the acquisition of major weapon systems or principal subsystems. If the contract amount is expected to be less than $1,000,000, the clause shall not be used, unless the contracting officer anticipates that situations will arise that may result in a contractor alleging that the Government has effected changes other than those identified as such in writing and signed by the contracting officer. The contractor shall notify the Administrative Contracting Officer in writing if the contractor identifies any Government conduct (including actions, inactions, and written or oral communications) that the contractor regards as a change to the contract terms and conditions. This excludes changes identified as such in writing and signed by the contracting officer. On the basis of the most accurate information available to the contractor, the notice shall state—

(1) The date, nature, and circumstances of the conduct regarded as a change;

(2) The name, function, and activity of each Government individual and Contractor official or employee involved in or knowledgeable about such conduct;

(3) The identification of any documents and the substance of any oral communication involved in such conduct;

(4) In the instance of alleged acceleration of scheduled performance or delivery, the basis upon which it arose;

(5) The particular elements of contract performance for which the Contractor may seek an equitable adjustment under this clause, including—

(i) What line items have been or may be affected by the alleged change;

(ii) What labor or materials or both have been or may be added, deleted, or wasted by the alleged change;

(iii) To the extent practicable, what delay and disruption in the manner and sequence of performance and effect on continued performance have been or may be caused by the alleged change;

(iv) What adjustments to contract price, delivery schedule, and other provisions affected by the alleged change are estimated; and

(6) The Contractor's estimate of the time by which the Government must respond to the Contractor's notice to minimize cost, delay or disruption of performance.

Contracting officers use the notices and information provided by contractors in response to a change notice to negotiate an equitable adjustment under the contract that may result from the change order.

C. Annual Burden

Respondents and Recordkeepers: 4,774.

Total Annual Responses: 11,532.

Total Burden Hours: 11,532. (9,656 reporting hours + 1,876 recordkeeping hours).

D. Public Comment

A 60-day notice was published in the Federal Register at 90 FR 15464, on April 11, 2025. A comment was received; however, it did not change the estimate of the burden.

Comment: The respondent expressed the following: “This agency collection should not be renewed based on improper implementation of the original contract and noncompliance of the regulations associated with the agreement. This also has legal implications for the agreement in place and this is an additional taxpayer burden for country.”

Response: The respondents' input is appreciated. Any changes to the collection of information on change order accounting and notification of changes will require rulemaking.

B. Need and Uses

This clearance covers the information that contractors must submit to comply with the following Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) requirements:

FAR 50.103-3, Contract Adjustment.

This section specifies the minimum information that a contractor must include when seeking a contract adjustment that would facilitate the national defense, as set forth in Public Law 85-804. The request, normally a letter, shall state as a minimum -

(1) The precise adjustment requested;

(2) The essential facts, summarized chronologically in narrative form;

(3) The contractor's conclusions based on these facts, showing, in terms of the considerations set forth in FAR 50.103-1 and 50.103-2, when the contractor considers itself entitled to the adjustment; and

(4) Whether or not -

(i) All obligations under the contracts involved have been discharged;

(ii) Final payment under the contracts involved has been made;

(iii) Any proceeds from the request will be subject to assignment or other transfer, and to whom; and

(iv) The contractor has sought the same, or a similar or related, adjustment from the Government Accountability Office or any other part of the Government, or anticipates doing so.

If the request exceeds the simplified acquisition threshold, the contractor must certify that the request is made in good faith and the data are accurate and complete.
