Title: NESHAP for Primary Lead Smelters (Renewal).

Abstract: The National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAP) for Primary Lead Smelters, published at 40 CFR part 63, subpart TTT, were proposed on April 17, 1998 (63 FR 19200), and promulgated on June 4, 1999 (64 FR 30204). On February 12, 1999, the Agency publicized a supplemental rulemaking for ferroalloys, mineral wool, primary copper, primary lead and wool fiberglass. The supplemental for this rule enhances the requirements of the bag leak detection systems in 40 CFR 63.1625 and 40 CFR 63.1655 of the proposed rule to include an enforceable operating limit. This rule applies to emissions sources (i.e., sinter machine, blast furnace, dross furnace, process fugitive, and fugitive dust sources) from primary lead smelters.

The monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements outlined in the rule are similar to those required for other NESHAP regulations. Plants must demonstrate compliance with the emission standards by monitoring their control devices and performing annual emissions testing. Consistent with the NESHAP General Provisions (40 CFR part 63, subpart A), all sources subject to this standard are required to submit one-time notifications of applicability; a one-time report on performance test results for the primary emission control device; an initial report specifying the intended methods of compliance; standard operating procedure manuals for baghouses and fugitive dust control; and a semiannual report that includes a summary of the monitoring results, any baghouse leak detection system alarms and corrective actions. Sources must also maintain records of production for unrefined lead, copper matte, and copper speiss; the date and times of bag leak detection system alarms and the corrective action taken; baghouse inspection and maintenance; any records required as part of the source standard operating procedures manuals; and the compliance methods chosen. Records shall be maintained for a period of five years. Records of the most recent two years of operation must be maintained onsite.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. The OMB Control Numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and 48 CFR chapter 15, and are identified on the form and/or instrument, if applicable.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 3,048 (rounded) hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities:

Emissions sources from primary lead smelters (i.e., sinter machine, blast furnace, dross furnace, process fugitive, and fugitive dust sources).

Estimated Number of Respondents: 2.

Frequency of Response: Initial, annual, semiannual and on occasion.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 12,190 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Costs: $1,003,083, which includes $0 annualized capital/startup costs, $19,000 annual O&M costs, and $984,083 annual labor costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is a decrease of 83 hours in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. This decrease in labor burden to industry from the most recently approved ICR is due to the assumptions that both existing respondents have complied with the initial requirements of the rule and that there will be no new growth in this industry sector.

The total annualized capital and operations and maintenance costs decreased from $36,000 to $19,000 due to a lack of capital/startup costs associated with new sources purchasing continuous emission monitoring equipment. The operation and maintenance costs for the monitoring equipment at existing sources are anticipated to continue over the next three years.

Although there was an increase in the labor rates for both industry and the Federal government, it did not offset the reduction in labor burden associated due to the assumptions stated above.

Dated: October 24, 2005.

Director, Collection Strategies Division.
