DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICESNational Institutes of Health*Final Revised Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) Organ Policy Equity Act Safeguards and Research Criteria for Transplantation of Organs From Donors With HIV

AGENCY: National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Final notice.

SUMMARY: Kidney and liver transplants from donors with HIV no longer require institutional review board (IRB)-approved research protocols or compliance with HHS research criteria per a November 27, 2024, final rule. Through this notice, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) announces the publication of this accompanying Final Revised Safeguards and Research Criteria for Transplantation of Organs from Donors with HIV to apply to non-kidney and non-liver organs from donors with HIV for transplantation in recipients with HIV. Under the HOPE Act, these transplants must still occur under an IRB-approved research protocol that is compliant with federal regulations governing human subjects' research. The goal of this research is to increase knowledge about the safety, efficacy, and effectiveness of transplants
