LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Copyright Office

[Docket No. 2022–3]

Best Edition Study: Notice and Request for Public Comment

AGENCY: U.S. Copyright Office, Library of Congress.

ACTION: Notice of inquiry.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Copyright Office is undertaking a public study at the request of Senator Thom Tillis to evaluate the deposit requirements of section 407 and 408 of the Copyright Act and consider whether "removing the 'best edition' requirement from the registration deposit process in section 408 could help improve the registration process." To aid in its review of this topic, the Office is soliciting input from interested members of the public.

DATES: Written comments must be received no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on July 18, 2022.

ADDRESSES: For reasons of government efficiency, the Copyright Office is using the regulations.gov system for the submission and posting of public comments in this proceeding. All comments are therefore to be submitted electronically through regulations.gov. Specific instructions for submitting comments are available on the Copyright Office website at <https://www.copyright.gov/policy/best-edition>. If electronic submission of comments is not feasible due to lack of access to a computer and/or the internet, please contact the Office using the contact information below for special instructions.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Megan Efthimiadis, Assistant to the General Counsel, by email at mefth@copyright.gov or telephone at (202) 707–8350.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 24, 2021, Senator Thom Tillis sent a letter seeking the Copyright Office's "expertise and guidance regarding adjusted copyright examination and registration requirements."¹ Specifically, Senator Tillis requested that the Office complete "a study regarding the feasibility of decoupling the deposit requirements of Section 407 of Title 17 from Section 408."² The letter states that "[s]ome have asserted that" decoupling "could help improve the registration process by permitting low resolution digital deposits, for example."³ In conducting the study, Senator Tillis asked the Office to consult with the Library of Congress to address the Library's need to grow its collections, as well as to consider the Office's own needs as part of the registration process.⁴

To guide its consideration of these issues, the Office is soliciting public comments on topics related to this inquiry. These comments will be used to inform the Office's discussions with the Library and its consideration of the Office's needs with respect to deposits for registration purposes.
