

covered by this system for use by persons with emergency management responsibilities to notify officials, employees, and other affected individuals of conditions that require their urgent attention during a public or personal emergency.

ROUTINE USES OF THE SYSTEM RECORDS, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THEIR PURPOSES FOR USING THE SYSTEM:

- a. In any legal proceeding, where pertinent, to which GSA is a party before a court or administrative body.
- b. To a Federal agency in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the reporting of an investigation; the letting of a contract; or the issuance of a grant, license, or other benefit to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to a decision.
- c. To the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), or the Government Accountability Office (GAO) when the information is required for program evaluation purposes.
- d. To a Member of Congress or staff on behalf of and at the request of the individual who is the subject of the record.
- e. To an expert, consultant, or contractor of GSA in the performance of a Federal duty to which the information is relevant.
- f. To the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for records management purposes.
- g. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the Agency suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) the Agency has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by GSA or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with GSA's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.
- h. To disclose information to a Federal, State, local, or foreign agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, or carrying out a statute, rule, regulation, or order, where the agency becomes aware of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation.

- i. To disclose information to an appeal, grievance, or formal complaints examiner; equal employment opportunity investigator; arbitrator; union official or other official engaged in investigating or settling a grievance, complaint, or appeal filed by an employee.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF SYSTEM RECORDS:

STORAGE:

System records are located in the GSA Central Office and regional offices with assigned emergency management responsibilities.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records may be retrieved by name, organization, location, teleworking capability, or special medical or other health or safety need of an individual.

SAFEGUARDS:

When not in use by an authorized person, the records are secured from unauthorized access. Paper records are placed in lockable file cabinets or in secured areas. Electronic records are protected by passwords, access codes, and other appropriate technical security measures.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Disposal of system records is according to the Handbook, GSA Records Maintenance and Disposition System (CIO P 1820.1), and the requirements of the National Archives and Records Administration.

SYSTEM MANAGER AND ADDRESS:

The Director, Office of Emergency Response and Recovery, Disaster Support Division, 1800 F Street, NW., Washington, DC 20405. GSA services, staff offices and regions are responsible for the integrity of data within their jurisdictions.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Individuals may determine whether the system contains their records by submitting a request to the System Manager or the appropriate Service, Staff Office, or regional official.

RECORDS ACCESS PROCEDURES:

An individual may obtain information on the procedures for gaining access to their records from the System Manager or the appropriate Service, Staff Office, or regional official.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Individuals wishing to request amendment of their records should contact the System Manager or the appropriate Service, Staff Office, or regional official. GSA rules for contesting the content of a record and appealing an initial decision are in 41 CFR 105-60.

RECORD SOURCES CATEGORIES:

The records contain information provided by the individuals themselves, and it is all voluntary information.
