FACOSH Appointments

FACOSH membership is comprised of sixteen members; eight representing Federal agency management, and eight from labor organizations that represent Federal employees. Management members are typically their agency's Designated Agency Safety and Health Official. Labor members generally have responsibility for OSH-related matters within their organizations. In order to maintain the continuity of FACOSH, OSHA appoints members to staggered terms lasting up to three years. If a member becomes unable to serve, resigns, or is removed before his or her term expires, the Secretary may appoint a new member who represents the same interest (management or labor) to serve the remainder of the unexpired term. In making appointments, the Secretary may consider qualified individuals nominated in response to the Federal Register notice, as well as other qualified individuals. The Secretary may reappoint members to successive terms.

OSHA published a request for FACOSH nominations in the Federal Register (77 FR 39743 (7/5/2012)). OSHA received 16 nominations. On February 11, 2013, the Acting Secretary re-appointed the following three individuals to FACOSH:

- Mr. Curtis Bowling, U.S. Department of Defense (management representative);
- Mr. William Dougan, National Federation of Federal Employees (labor representative); and
- Ms. Deborah Kleinberg, Seafarers International Union/National Maritime Union (labor representative).

In addition, the Acting Secretary appointed the following four individuals to new terms on FACOSH:

- Dr. Joe Hoagland, Tennessee Valley Authority (management representative);
- Dr. Gregory Parham, U.S. Department of Agriculture (management representative);
- Ms. Lola Ward, National Transportation Safety Board (management representative); and
- Ms. Irma Westmoreland, National Nurses United (labor representative).

All seven individuals have been appointed to serve three-year terms commencing on the date of appointment, and ending on December 31, 2015.
