

communities in three counties, and tested three different intervention models. Girls' attendance rates at all 40 school programs increased beyond project targets, and baseline enrollment of girls increased by 23 percent, in comparison to a decrease of over 19 percent in control schools.

3. Improve Trade Freedom. This project intended to improve Liberia's trade freedom and to enable Liberia to participate more effectively in the Economic Community of West African States by improving performance on key policy measures. As a result of the project, the government of Liberia eased requirements for processing import and export declaration permits. The project also provided support to government of Liberia efforts to revise policies in a way that would lead to accession to the World Trade Organization; Liberia's accession is expected to be concluded by December of this year.
