from which the Native American human remains were removed is the aboriginal land of the Yokuts and southern Miwok, who are represented today by The Tribes.

- The unratified treaty of 1851 indicates that the land from which the Native American human remains were removed is the aboriginal land of the Yokuts and southern Miwok, who are represented today by The Tribes.

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry.
