

closing, and upon approval of the transfers of control, US Athens SpinCo Corp. will replace the standby trust. Honeywell will either transfer the irrevocable letters of credit to US Athens SpinCo Corp. or US Athens SpinCo Corp. will replace the letters of credit with a new financial assurance instrument; that instrument is likely to take the form of a surety bond, insurance, bank or third-party lender guarantee, or new letters of credit. Honeywell or US Athens SpinCo Corp. will submit the actual form of any replacement financial assurance instrument to the NRC in a supplemental filing. This replacement financial assurance instrument will be in an amount sufficient to satisfy the most recent decommissioning cost estimate.

The Transaction is not anticipated to affect the organizational or operational structure described in the license for the Metropolis Facility nor any procedures associated with the licensed activities that would require NRC approval. Further, there are no anticipated changes in the use, possession, locations, or storage of licensed materials at the Metropolis Facility because of the Transaction. Licensed activities will continue in their current form without interruption resulting from the Transaction. Similarly, the transfer of Honeywell's indirect 50 percent ownership of the ConverDyn joint venture as part of the Transaction is not anticipated to have any effect on the export license held by ConverDyn or any of ConverDyn's licensed activities. Honeywell will inform the NRC if changes become anticipated as part of the Transaction.

Honeywell currently anticipates that the Internal Reorganization will close in the second quarter of 2025 and the Spin by the third quarter of 2025. In its Application, Honeywell requested the NRC to provide its consent by no later than June 24, 2025, and that such consent be effective for one year subject to extension for good cause shown.

The applicants requested the NRC's consent to the indirect transfers of control pursuant to Section 184 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and the NRC's implementing regulations in 10 CFR 40.46, 110.50, and 110.51. A notice of receipt of the application and opportunity to request a hearing and provide written comments was published in the Federal Register on April 1, 2025 (90 FR 14396). The NRC received one comment (ML25098A039) on the Application and no requests for a hearing in response to the notice. In its comment, the commenter recommended “. . .not approving the transfer because the American taxpayer could be affected and have to pay for an expensive decommissioning of radioactive industries.” The commenter, however, provided no additional justification for the NRC to deny its consent to transfer control of Honeywell's licenses. As such, the NRC took no action in response to the comment.

The regulation in 10 CFR 40.46, “Inalienability of licenses,” states that “No license issued or granted pursuant to the regulations in this part shall be transferred, assigned or in any manner disposed of, either voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, through transfer of control of any license to any person, unless the Commission shall after securing full information, find that the transfer is in accordance with the provisions of this act, and shall give its consent in writing.” The regulation in 10 CFR 110.50(d) states that “A specific license may be transferred, disposed of or assigned to another person only with the approval of the Commission”.

Upon review of the information in Honeywell's application, as supplemented, and other information before the NRC, and relying on the representations contained in the application, the NRC staff has determined that NewCo Corp. is qualified to directly hold the NRC license for the Metropolis facility, to the extent described in the application, and that the indirect transfers of the licenses, as described by Honeywell in its Application, are otherwise consistent with applicable provisions of law, regulations, and orders issued by the Commission pursuant thereto.

The NRC staff has also determined that: (1) there is reasonable assurance that the health and safety of the public will not be endangered by operation in the proposed manner, (2) there is reasonable assurance that such activities will be conducted in compliance with the Commission's regulations, and (3) the transfers will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public. The findings set forth above are supported by an NRC staff technical evaluation dated the same date as this order, which is available at ADAMS Accession No. ML25141A095.

III.

Accordingly, pursuant to Sections 161b, 161i, and 184 of the Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2201(b), 2201(i), and 2234; and 10 CFR 40.46 and 110.50(d), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the license transfer application, as described herein, be approved subject to the following conditions:

(1) Honeywell must certify, at least 10 days prior to closing the Transaction, that a majority of corporate officers and board of directors remain U.S. Citizens.

(2) Honeywell must provide, at least 10 business days prior to closing, executed financial assurance instruments in the name of the new licensee which will cover the most recently approved decommissioning cost estimate.

(3) Honeywell must provide, at least 10 business days prior to closing, an executed letter from NewCo Corp. confirming that it agrees to the direct and indirect transfer of control within the meaning of 10 CFR 40.46.

(4) Honeywell shall provide, at least 10 business days prior to the closure of the transaction, Certificates of Incorporation in the name of the new licensee.

(5) Should the proposed indirect transfers not be completed within 1 year of the date of the Order, the Order shall become null and void provided that, upon timely written application and for good cause shown, such date may be extended by order.

(6) After receipt of all required regulatory approvals of the proposed transaction, Honeywell shall inform the Director of the Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards in writing of such receipt at least one (1) business day before all actions necessary to accomplish the direct and indirect transfers of control are completed.

(7) Should the proposed indirect transfers not be completed within 1 year of the date of this order, this order shall become null and void, provided, however, that upon timely written application and for good cause shown, such date may be extended by order.

This order is effective upon issuance.

For further details with respect to this order, see the application dated January 24, 2025, as supplemented by letters dated February 14, 2025 (ML25049A139), March 3, 2025 (ML25062A232), March 7, 2025 (ML25066A215), April 9, 2025 (ML25100A077), and May 28, 2025 (ML25148A428), and the associated NRC staff technical evaluation dated the same date as this order. RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

In accordance with the requirement of Section 3506 (c)(2)(A) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 which provides opportunity for public comment on new or revised data collections, the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) will publish periodic summaries of proposed data collections.

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed information collection is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the RRB's estimate of the burden of the collection of the information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden related to the collection of information on respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

1. Title and purpose of information collection: Employer's Quarterly Report of Contributions under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act; OMB 3220–0012.

Under Section 8 of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (RUIA) (45 U.S.C. 231g), as amended by the Railroad Unemployment Improvement Act of 1988 (Pub. L. 100–647), the RRB determines the amount of an employer's contribution, primarily on the basis of the RUIA benefits paid, both unemployment and sickness, to the employees of the railroad employer. These experienced-based contributions take into account the frequency, volume, and duration of the employees' unemployment and sickness benefits. Each employer's contribution rate includes a component for administrative expenses as well as a component to cover costs shared by all employers. The regulations prescribing the manner and conditions for remitting the contributions and for adjusting overpayments or underpayments of contributions are contained in 20 CFR 345. RRB Form DC–1, Employer's Quarterly Report of Contributions under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, is used by railroad employers to
