OFFICE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY POLICY

Notice of Request for Information; Downscaled Climate Projection Datasets Available To Be Considered for Use in the Sixth National Climate Assessment

AGENCY: Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP).

ACTION: Request for Information (RFI).

SUMMARY: With this notice, the U.S. Global Change Research Program (USGCRP) is issuing a Request for Information (RFI) on downscaled climate projection datasets for possible use in the 6th National Climate Assessment (NCA6). USGCRP will use the information submitted in response to this RFI to identify downscaled datasets that may be used by NCA6 authors at their discretion and to develop an updated data atlas for NCA6. DATES: Comments and nominations must be submitted to the web address specified below and received on or before January 17th, 2025.

ADDRESSES: Submitted information will be accepted electronically via the USGCRP Public Contribution System: <https://contribute.globalchange.gov>. Instructions for submitting comments are available on the website.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Aaron Grade (202) 419–3488, agrade@usgcrp.gov, U.S. Global Change Research Program.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Global Change Research Act (GCRA) of 1990 mandates that USGCRP deliver a National Climate Assessment to Congress and the President not less frequently than every four years that “(1) integrates, evaluates, and interprets the findings of the Program; (2) analyzes the effects of global change on the natural environment, agriculture, energy production and use, land and water resources, transportation, human health and welfare, human social systems, and biological diversity; and (3) analyzes current trends in global change, both human-induced and natural, and projects major trends for the subsequent 25 to 100 years.” One of the ways that projected changes across the United States are assessed is through the use of downscaled datasets, which are used by chapter author teams to support their understanding of the future impacts of climate change in each of the 50 states and in the U.S. territories so as to inform the assessment findings, narrative texts, and figures.

To date, five NCAs have been released. The most recent (NCA5) was released in November 2023, and can be found at <https://nca2023.globalchange.gov>. NCA6 is being developed in a way that maximizes transparency and inclusivity, offering opportunities for diverse public participation throughout the process. The production and review processes are designed to result in a report that is authoritative, timely, relevant, and policy-neutral; valued by authors and users; accessible to the widest possible audience; and fully compliant with the GCRA and federal Information Quality Act requirements.

A previous Federal Register Notice (<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/05/02/2024-09575/national-oceanic-and-atmospheric-administration-noaa-availability-for-public-comment-on-nca6-draft>) called for public input on themes, information for assessment, and volunteers to participate in the NCA6 development process. This RFI asks for input from the public on the availability of downscaled climate projection datasets that would advance NCA’s efforts to inform decisions at more localized scales.

This voluntary request for information is intended to support USGCRP’s selection, processing, aggregation, and use of downscaled data in NCA6. NCA6 is currently under development, and it is projected to be publicly released between late 2027 and early 2028. USGCRP intends to use information from this RFI to plan for the appropriate volume and methods of data processing, aggregation, and data display techniques that reflect the expected increase in breadth of downscaled datasets that could be contributed to NCA6.

Information submitted through this form will be reviewed by a federal interagency group tasked with making recommendations to report leadership for appropriate downscaled datasets for use in NCA6. The USGCRP anticipates this process will require an ongoing dialogue with the groups that provide the selected downscaled datasets and has designed it to be as flexible as possible to be inclusive, while also mindful of NCA6 requirements as a Highly Influential Scientific Assessment. Responses to this request
