

the owners of non-federal hydropower power projects that directly benefit from a headwater(s) improvement must pay an equitable portion of the annual charges for interest, maintenance, and depreciation of the headwater project to the U.S. Treasury. The regulations provide for the apportionment of these costs between the headwater project and downstream projects based on a downstream energy gains and propose equitable apportionment methodology that can be applied to all river basins in which headwater improvements are built. The data the Commission requires owners of non-federal hydropower projects to file for determining annual charges is specified in 18 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 11.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

May 27, 2005.

Take notice that on May 25, 2005, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, Eighth Revised Sheet No. 320, with a proposed effective date of May 8, 2004.

Columbia states that on February 10, 2005, it made a compliance filing to revise tariff sheets that, among other things, added new language to the minimum pressure and hourly flow rate provisions of its General Terms and Conditions. The Commission accepted the compliance filing on May 10, 2005, subject to additional modifications. The instant filing reflects those changes.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211).
