

GSA agreed to remove this specific provision in its current form.

In order to accomplish this, it is necessary to remove the existing provision, and this FMR does so.

B. Executive Order 12866

This regulation is excepted from the definition of "regulation" or "rule" under Section 3(d)(3) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993 and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of that Executive Order.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule is not required to be published in the Federal Register for notice and comment as per the exemption specified in 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2); therefore, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., does not apply.

D. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the changes to the FMR do not impose information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

E. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This final rule is exempt from Congressional review under 5 U.S.C. 801 since it relates solely to agency management and personnel.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 7, 2008, the Advocates for Highway and Auto Safety (Advocates) sent a request on behalf of themselves, Public Citizen, the Truck Safety Coalition, and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters for an extension of the comment period in the subject rulemaking proceeding. They stated that the complexity of the issues involved, including the new analyses provided in the interim final rule, has required serious evaluation that has taken up much of its limited staff time. The Advocates requested a 30-day extension of the comment period which they believe would be in the public interest and would not prevent the Agency from issuing a final rule in 2008.

In order to allow petitioners and the general public an opportunity to provide comprehensive comments on the new analyses included in the interim final rule published by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration on December 17, 2007, the Agency has decided to grant the petitioner's request to extend the comment period for the rulemaking by 30 days. The comment period has been extended and comments must be received on or before March 17, 2008.

Issued: February 13, 2008.

John H. Hill,
Administrator.
