update the material to reflect changes to the laws, rules and regulations covered by the examination and to better reflect the duties and responsibilities of a Limited Representative—Equity Trader. FINRA is not proposing any textual changes to the By-Laws, Schedules to the By-Laws, or Rules of FINRA.

The text of the proposed rule change is available at <http://www.finra.org>, the principal offices of FINRA, and the Commission's Public Reference Room. The Series 55 selection specifications have been submitted to the Commission under separate cover with a request for confidential treatment pursuant to Rule 24b-2 under the Act.⁶

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, FINRA included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. FINRA has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Section 15A(g)(3) of the Act⁷ requires FINRA to prescribe standards of training, experience, and competence for persons associated with FINRA members. In accordance with that provision, FINRA has developed examinations, and administers examinations developed by other self-regulatory organizations, that are designed to establish that persons associated with FINRA members have attained specified levels of competence and knowledge. FINRA periodically reviews the content of the examinations to determine whether revisions are necessary or appropriate in view of changes pertaining to the subject matter covered by the examinations.

Pursuant to NASD Rule 1032(f), each associated person of a member who is included within the definition of representative in NASD Rule 1031(b) is required to register with FINRA as a Limited Representative—Equity Trader if, with respect to transactions in equity, preferred or convertible debt securities effected otherwise than on a securities exchange, such person is engaged in proprietary trading, the execution of transactions on an agency basis or the direct supervision of such activities. There is an exception from the Limited Representative—Equity Trader requirement for any associated person of a member whose trading activities are conducted principally on behalf of an investment company that is registered with the Commission pursuant to the Investment Company Act of 1940 and that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the member. The Series 55 examination is the FINRA examination that qualifies an individual to function as a Limited Representative—Equity Trader. Before registration as a Limited Representative—Equity Trader may become effective, the individual must be registered as either a General Securities Representative (Series 7) or Limited Representative—Corporate Securities (Series 62).

A committee of industry representatives, together with FINRA staff, recently undertook a review of the Series 55 examination program. As a result of this review, FINRA is proposing to make revisions to the study outline to reflect changes to the laws, rules and regulations covered by the examination and to better reflect the duties and responsibilities of a Limited Representative—Equity Trader.

Among other revisions, FINRA is proposing to revise the references to the FINRA and The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("NASDAQ") rules in the study outline to reflect NASDAQ's separation from FINRA (then known as NASD). FINRA also is proposing to add sections on NASD Rules 2441 (Net Transactions with Customers) and 5110 (Transactions Related to Initial Public Offerings).

FINRA is proposing to change the title of Section 2 of the study outline from "NASDAQ Display, Execution and Trading Systems" to "Display, Execution and Trading Systems." Further, as a result of the revisions discussed above, the number of questions on each section of the study outline was modified as follows: NASDAQ and Over-The-Counter Markets, increased from 41 to 42 questions; Display, Execution and Trading Systems, decreased from 17 to 12 questions; Trade Reporting Requirements, increased from 19 to 22 questions; and General Industry Standards, increased from 23 to 24 questions.

FINRA is proposing similar changes to the Series 55 selection specifications and question bank. The number of questions on the Series 55 examination will remain at 100, and candidates will continue to have 3 hours to complete the exam. Also, each question will continue to count one point, and each candidate must correctly answer 70 percent of the questions to receive a passing grade.

2. Statutory Basis

FINRA believes that the proposed revisions to the Series 55 examination program are consistent with the provisions of Sections 15A(b)(6)⁸ and 15A(g)(3) of the Act,⁹ which authorize FINRA to prescribe standards of training, experience, and competence for persons associated with FINRA members.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act¹⁰ and Rule 19b-4(f)(1) thereunder,¹¹ in that the proposed rule change constitutes a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule of the self-regulatory organization. FINRA proposes to implement the revised Series 55 examination program on February 12, 2008. FINRA will announce the implementation date in a Regulatory Notice to be published on December 12, 2007, the date FINRA filed SR-FINRA-2007-30 with the Commission.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Letter to Alden S. Adkins, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, NASD Regulation, from Belinda Blaine, Associate Director, Division of Market Regulation, SEC, dated July 24, 2000, attached as Exhibit 3c to the proposed rule change. The question bank is available for Commission review.
