Southprint, Inc., Reidsville Division, Reidsville, NC; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application postmarked July 7, 2008, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The determination was issued on May 29, 2008. The Notice of Determination was published in the Federal Register on June 16, 2008 (73 FR 34044).

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination based on the finding that imports of screen printing for apparel did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the subject firm and no shift of production to a foreign source occurred.

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner provided additional information about the customers of the subject firm.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 31st day of July 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on November 30, 2007, applicable to workers of Arrow Home Fashions, including on-site leased workers of Adecco and Select Personnel, Anaheim, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 11, 2007 (72 FR 70346).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in employment related to the production of bedding products. New information shows that due to a change in ownership in April 2008, BCP Home, Inc. is the parent firm of Arrow Home Fashions. Workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Arrow Home Fashions, Division of BCP Homes, Inc.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Arrow Home Fashions, Division of BCP Home, Inc. Anaheim, California who were adversely affected by a shift in production of bedding products to China.

All workers of Arrow Home Fashions, Division of BCP Home, Inc., including on-site leased workers of Adecco and Select Personnel, Anaheim, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 6, 2006, through November 30, 2009, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade
